IN MEMORIAM

IN MEMORIAM
In sad but loving remembrance of our dear daughter and sister, Annie Laura Mann, who was killed in a train and car crash 2 years ago, January 14, 1956.
Two years ago our hearts still sore,
As time goes on we miss you more,
For we love you just the same today,
As that sad day you went away.

Our home is lonely Laura, without you,
There is always a vacant chair.
As ever present a reminder,
Of our dear one missing there.

Gone is the face we loved so dear
Silent is the voice we loved to hear,
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thought to reach.

You are gone but not forgotten,
Never will your memory fade.
For our thoughts so often wander,
Back to the grave where you were laid.

Sadly missed by Father, Mother, Daughter, Sisters and Brother.

VA. 4-H CLUBS HAVE RECORD ENROLLMENT

Enrollment in the Virginia 4-H program reached an all-time high in 1957, with 69,306 members in 2,239 clubs.

In his year-end summary, Dr. W. E. Skelton, state 4-H agent at VPI, says the club members were enrolled in 110,319 projects. The 10 most popular were clothing, foods, electric, home grounds beautification, home furnishings, home management, health, garden, livestock, and safety.

Club activities played an important part in the program, with more members participating than in any previous year. These activities included contests, demonstrations, judging, camps, talent shows, tours, float parades, and special observances. During the year 40 camps were held with an attendance of 7,100 boys and girls.

Dr. Skelton says volunteer leaders continue to make an important contribution as they help plan and provide training. The state adult 4-H leader's association in cooperation with the VPI Agricultural Extension Service held the first statewide adult leaders conference at Natural Bridge in November with 130 leaders from 37 counties attending.

Twenty counties exceeded the 1,000 mark in enrollment. They are: Amherst, 1,111; Augusta, 1,123; Bedford, 1,737; Campbell, 1,288; Carroll, 1,568; Charlotte, 1,089; Dinwiddie, 1,421; Franklin, 1,; Greensville, 1,217; Halifax, Henrico, 1,330; Henry, Mecklenburg, 1,200; Nel, 1,144; Nelson, 1,100; Pa, 238; Pittsylvania, 2,884; Anne, 1,324; Russell, 1,; Tazewell, 1,078.

COMMENT ON SPORTS

By Pete Fritchie

Washington.- All sports writers are probably partial to a certain Major League baseball team, or maybe two of them. And baseball fans are peculiar fans. They sometimes can't explain why they so loyally follow them. And baseball certain Major League team, but that they do, for years and years, ever true.

This writer will admit he has two favorites. They are, and always have been, the Detroit Tigers and the St. Louis Cardinals. It probably goes back to the 1934 World Series, which the Cardinals won, but whatever it was that injected the bug it has been alive and kicking since.

We will admit that Yankee fans, Dodger fans, and many other groups of fans, have just as much to admire, or maybe more, and therefore that they have a sound reason to follow their conscience. But they, too, should admit, that this is a year when any baseball fan who has both the Tigers and the Cards as favorites is sitting up and feeling a bit excited.

For the Cardinals finished second last season and could win the pennant this year. (They're managed, by the way, by a former Tiger pitcher). The Tigers finished in the first division last season for the first time in years, and are heading up.

They've just signed the firebrand guy they needed so badly, Billy Martin, and Billy says this is the year the Bengals could take it away from the New Yorkers. Of course, there's Chicago, and Boston, and they finished ahead of the Tigers last season, to be dealt with, and that is no small order.

The Cards must edge out Milwaukee, Brooklyn and maybe a couple of other contenders. That won't be easy, either. But they have a chance.

The Tigers have added Gus Zernial for power and distance slugging, and Billy Martin for infield insurance.

So, the Bengal and the Cardinal fans have a great year to look forward to, at least up until someone else wins the flag or flags—if the mop flops that way.

57th Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Glenn

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Glenn entertained a few friends at dinner at Maude's Restaurant in Appomattox on Thursday, January 16, in celebration of their 57th wedding anniversary. A tiered cake and other decorations carried the wedding motif. Guests included Dr. and Mrs. Charles F. James, Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Janatka, the Rev. Dr. W. Twyman Williams, Misses Ruth Lewis and Peggy Harris, and Mr. James Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn were married at Courtland, Kansas, January 16, 1901 by the Rev. Mr. W. P. Jewett. Mr. Olas Free served as Best Man and Miss Emma Ammerman was the Bride's Attendant.

About The Home

If housekeeping gets you down and seems to be taking too much of your time, the reason is quite likely to be lack of organization. A haphazard routine is death to the homemaker.

The first step is to make a time schedule for doing the routine things about the home that must be done each day, several times a week and once a week. Take your time, for this is the foundation of the over-all plan. Meals and their preparation are a major item. House cleaning and laundry another.

Try to have breakfast, lunch and dinner at an appointed hour each day if it at all possible. If you are lucky enough to have good help, keep the menus simple but nourishing. There are any number of good books and articles written that will help you along this line.

After you have completed a schedule for your home, work at it. Use the first few weeks to smooth and perfect the schedule into a pattern that will be congenial to the entire family.

The new plan should enable the homemaker to have more leisure time for outside activities or rest.

If it doesn't do this, it is not a success.

Another important thing to remember is that a schedule must be elastic. It should be made to fit around the occurrences of everyday life.

AUDIO TV SET

Dallas, Texas.- Sam Sowul, blind for twenty years, has the smallest television set in town. For obvious reasons, it has no picture tube. Yet Miss Sowul uses it instead of a radio. The set is actually a small cabinet about the size of a table model radio, but its dial has numbers for TV channels. Plugged in, it picks up the audio portion of television programs. The set is built by the American Foundation for the Blind, Miss Sowul is employed by the Texas Commission for the Blind.

SHIPS GET NEW EYES

Halifax, Nova Scotia.- A new chain of radio navigation aids to North Atlantic shipping went into operation recently.

Its sponsors said it would open new sea lanes, and make existing ones safer. It could help avert such disasters as the Andrea Doria-Stockholm collision.

The network, embracing ground transmitter stations in Newfoundland and Nova Scotia, covers the North Atlantic approaches to the United States, including the St. Lawrence seaway.

Good Seasoning

Good seasoning is the reason for many food favorites. Try these: bay leaf and cloves in the water to boil smoked ham; garlic rubbed on salad bowl or garlic butter on heated French bread; sliced onions and celery on top of pot roast; or a little horseradish in tomato juice.

Subscription rate $2.00 a year; payable in advance.
